Last holiday I didn't go out for vacation, but I was very happy. My mother told me an educational（有教育意义的）story. Please listen to me carefully.

Once there was a baby eagle（鹰）living in a nest on a cliff（悬崖）. The baby eagle loved his nest. It was warm, soft and comfortable. And even better, he had all the food and love that his mother could give. Whenever the baby eagle was hungry, his mother would always come just in time with the delicious food he liked.

He was growing happily day after day. But suddenly his world changed. His mother stopped coming to the nest. He was full of sadness and fear. He thought he would die soon. He cried, but nobody heard him.

Two days later his mother appeared with some nice food. The baby eagle was wild with joy. But his mother put the food at the top of the mountain and then looked down at her baby. The baby eagle cried out. "Mum, why did you do this to me? I'm hungry. Don't you know I will die if I have nothing to eat?" "Here is the last meal I give you. Come and get it by yourself," his mother said. Then she flew down and pushed the baby eagle out of the nest.

The baby eagle fell down, faster and faster. He looked up at his mum, "Why do you abandon me?" He looked down at the earth. The ground was much closer. Then something strange happened. The air caught behind his arms and he began to fly! He wasn't moving to the ground any more. Instead, his eyes were pointed up at the sun.

"You are flying! You can make it!" His mother smiled.

One night I was sitting in my room half---listening as my 15---year---old brother Tommy fought with 12---year---old brother Kevin. I didn't pay attention when Kevin rushed up the stairs with the hurt on his face.

About 20 minutes later, as I was walking upstairs I heard Kevin crying inside the bathroom. I knocked on the door and asked, "Hey Kevin, do you want to talk?" No answer. I tried again, "Why don't you come out of there?" Again, no answer.

So, joking around, I grabbed a stack of（一摞）cards and a pencil and wrote, "If you don't want to talk, we can write notes to each other."

An hour later I was still sitting on the floor outside the bathroom with two stacks of cards in front of me. One was blank and one was cards from Kevin on which he had translated all his yucky feelings into words for me.

As I read one of Kevin notes, tears came to my eyes. It said, "Nobody in this family cares about me. I'm not the youngest, and I'm not the oldest. Tommy thinks I'm silly and Dad wishes he had the other Kevin as a kid because he's better at basketball. And you're never around to even notice me."

Tears came to my eyes as I wrote back to him. "You know Kevin, I really do love you and I m sorry I don't always show it. I am here for you and you are loved in this family."

There was no answer for a while, but then I heard a tearing sound coming from inside the bathroom, Kevin, who had run out of cards wrote on a torn paper cup, "Thanks."

I wrote back "For what?" It returned to me with "Loving me" on it. Since then, I try my best to never only half---notice my family members any more. Kevin and I have a closer relationship now. And sometimes when one of us notices that the other is upset, we'll smile and say "Write it on a paper cup."
