Robbie enjoyed art most at school. He liked math and music too, but because it was hard for Robbie to spell words correctly or to understand texts, he didn't enjoy being at school. In English, he had lots of problems. So, when Robbie was 12, his parents took him out of school and taught him differently at home. There, he learnt about business and working on computers, and spent more time happily studying art, exercising and practicing on his violin.

Robbie's grandmother started teaching to cook and he really enjoyed doing that. One day, she told him her secret way of making jam. Robbie made too much for the family to eat so he took it to other people in his street. He made more and more jam. It tasted so good that his parents' friends started buying it from him. Robbie added all his costs together and then put a price. Then with his father's help, he made a business plan on the computer, His jam is now sold at a weekly market. It tastes wonderful and it's healthy because Robbie uses grape juice instead of sugar.

"I'm still only 14 but I'm already businessman!" Robbie laughs. "Last week I got £93 because 87 different customers bought 52 kilos of my jam, and a supermarket wants to sell it too. My career is jam-making, I think.”

43. What was the Robbie’s problem in his English lessons?

- A. He hated reading. B. He couldn’t understand the teacher.
C. He couldn’t spell very well. D. His teacher didn’t like him.

44. Who told Robbie the secret way to make jam?

- A. His aunt. B. His grandmother. C. His mother. D. His teacher.

45. How much jam did Robbie sell last week?

- A. 52kg. B. 87kg. C. 93kg. D. 14kg.

46. What’s the best title for this passage?

- A. Robbie’s first business. B. Robbie’s school life.
C. Robbie’s jam. D. The way of making jam

Last year, I worked in a middle school near my mother’s house, and I stayed with her for a month. During that time, I helped her do some housework and buy some food.

After the first week, I found that the food was eaten up very quickly. Then I began keeping an eye on my mum. To my surprise, I found that she would put some of the food into a paper bag and go out with it at about nine every morning. She took the food to the street children. She would talk and play with them for a long time.

One day, I talked to a neighbour and found out that my mum was well-known in the area. The children were friendly with her and even thought of her as their own mother. Then it hit me-why wouldn’t she want to tell me about it? Was she worried that I would stop buying food if I found out?

When my mum got home, I gave her a big hug. I told her she didn’t need to keep it a secret from me. And she told me something about the children. Some of them lived with an old lady in a small house. Others slept on the street. For years, she was helping the poor street children by giving them food. After she told me everything, I was so moved by how selfless (无私的) she was. She helped others in need. As her son, I was so proud of my mum.

After that, when I bought food for my mum, I always added one more bag for her other children.

47. After the first week, the writer found that _____.

How do you feel when you get up in the morning? Happy and active or tired and weak? Do you often wake up with a headache? Well, if the answer is yes, take Dr. Talbot's advice and start feeling better.

Get up and move. If you hate feeling tired and unhappy, you should start exercising. Try running, swimming or cycling. Exercising makes us feel happier. If you don't like exercising, listen to your favorite music and dance to it. That's exercise, too.

Eat healthy. You should eat three balanced (平衡) meals every day and you shouldn't eat too much fast food. If you need some more extra energy the whole day, make an energy drink. Mix fresh fruit juice and milk together, It tastes great.

Get out close to nature. The smell of flowers will make you feel happy, Even the smell of your favorite food can change the way you feel!

Wake your body up. When you have a shower, change the water from hot to cold, and back to hot again. You'll feel the difference.

Laugh! You should laugh for, at least, three minutes, three times a day. It will make you feel great!
