We all need to talk with others in our daily activities and it is also very important. But, when someone talks with you, sometimes you feel happy, sometimes not. Why? Here are three magic(神奇的) words, they can make you a popular person with others. They are—Thank you, Please and Sorry!

Let's see how and why we should use these three words:

◆ Thank you

We always get help from another person. From the time we start our day till we go to our bed for a good night's sleep, we get a lot of help. However, how many times do we thank the other person? Don't be shy to say "Thank you"! It does not take away your things, but it can make the other person happy and more willing to help you next time!

◆ Please

Often we take things for granted (想当然) and ask other people to do things for us. A simple and sweet "please" can make you a polite and a popular person.

◆ Sorry

Everyone makes mistakes(错误), but it is not easy to say sorry for it. This always causes trouble between us and others. Saying sorry does not make you lose face but makes other people like you better.

Northern fur seals

Northern fur seals spend winter in the warm waters near California. There is lots of food for the seals, but there are also lots of predators. When spring comes, the Northern fur seals go on a long trip to islands near Alaska. These islands are a safe place to breed, as there are not many predators. The male seals arrive at islands first. They fight for the best females to arrive. The females arrive about four weeks later. They each give birth to one seal pup. In the next few days, the seals mate again. When they return to the islands, one year later, the females will give birth to next year's seal pups. After three months, the females and the young seals set off back to the warm waters off the coast of California. Soon after, the males also leave the islands. The fur seals travel about 10,000 kilometers on their trip from California to Alaska and back again. (改编于《七年级新理念第三册》)
