Dear, Jim,

How is it going?

I'm writing to invite you to go to join in the book sharing with us. It will be held at 5 o'clock on Friday in the reading room. During the book sharing, you are going to introduce yourself first. Then you can share one of your favourite books. You can also talk about your feelings about the book. To join in the book sharing, you need to choose one of your favorite books. It's a good idea to search more information about the writer. Besides, you can take a notebook with you. I am sure this will be a special experience for you.

I'm looking forward to your early reply.

Yours,

Li Ping

题目②

I want to say thanks to my English teacher. My English teacher is very kind and warm-hearted. She helped me so much in the past three years with my English study.

When I first come to middle school, my English was very poor. I had lots of problems and wasn't interested in English at all. One day, my English teacher asked to go to her office after school. She asked me why I didn't like English and my problems. She was very friendly and patient. She encouraged me to keep studying hard. We made a plan for my English studying. After that, she started to help me from time to time. I was so moved by her kindness. I felt that I was so lucky that I had her as my English teacher.

I am going to leave school soon. I just want to say thanks to her for all her help.

Education is very important for everyone. However, there are young people who are not getting education. Their parents are too poor. Children drop out of school before they have learnt enough. But you can help them.

How? We are writing to all businesses in the area for help. Please give us something useful or organize a money-raising activity for us. A factory concert or a company sale can help us. All the money you raise can help pay for school buildings, teachers and books. Your money will help us train boys and girls to be good workers for the future.

Project Help has been active since 1975 and is well-known both in China and abroad. As people have heard of us they are more willing to help. Listen to what He Wanjing says: My school was far away. My father told me I had to drop out. He could not pay for the bus or books. Then Project Help opened a school in our village. Now we can all have a good education. Thank you, Project Help.

Every business has some skills or products that can be useful to Project Help. If we work together, we can build a better country – and the smiles of the children and their schools will be a big “thank you” for you.

W: Yes. I have worked as a teacher for four years in America. I have taught listening at a language school in New York. I have also started a new course: Spoken English for Tour Guides. All these experiences have helped me become a good teacher.

M: What are you like?

W: I think I am warm and friendly. My students enjoy my classes.

M: What do you often do in and outside your class?
