21. Summer is a time for having fun in the sun! Children should be able to have fun but they should also be safe. Here are some helpful tips all parents should tell their children.

Never talk to strangers

Tell your children not to talk to anyone they don't know. If someone they don't know comes up to them, they should either run away if they are alone or go somewhere where there are other people.

Keep cool in the heat

If your children must be outdoors in the ha make sure at activities should be limited (限制) to 15 minutes.Of course, water is necessary for them. Remember to ask them to drink some ever 20 minutes even though they do not feel thirsty (口渴的) .

Water safety

For children who cannot swim they should not go into the deep area of the water. And they should also play at places where there are lifeguards (救生员) . This way if something were to happen, they would have someone there to help them. Children should never be in a pool alone, anyway.

Bike safety

Riding can be fun but also dangerous. Remember to ask your children to be careful in the street, sidewalk and even the driveway of your home. They need to be taught never to ride a bike out into the street without first looking for cars, and never into the street from behind a parked car, or from in between two parked cars. Stay away from them.
