Reading is a good hobby for all kinds of reasons.

First, reading books is fun. You can always keep yourself amused if you like reading. This is especially useful when the weather is bad. It is a relaxing hobby, too. You can really become lost in a book. You can learn about people, places and events outside your own experience.

Next, you can read a book almost anywhere: in a car, in a waiting room, on a plane, in bed-even in the bathroom. All you need is a book! Reading is a convenient hobby as it is easy to stop and then start again.

Another good reason for reading books is that it is useful. Everything you read fills your head with new bits of information, and you never know when you might need it. If you read as a hobby you will get better and better at it. This means that you will read faster and will become better at understanding what you read. 附加题-阅读理解

22. When musician Collin Baker won five hundred thousand pounds in a competition, it seemed the answer to his dreams. Almost immediately, he bought a house and made his own CD recording of some classical music. He intended to save the rest of his money and retire, even though he was only in his late forties.

Then he saw a violin in a shop. It was of such high quality that even top professional players are rarely able to afford one like it. 'I'd never felt money was important until then,' he explained. 'Even with the money I'd won, I wasn't sure I could afford to buy the violin, so I started to leave the shop. Then I thought I'd just try it, and I fell in love with the beautiful sound it made. I knew it was perfect both for live concerts and for recordings.'

Now all the money has gone. 'My wife can't have the study room I promised her, and I can't retire,' says Colin, 'but it doesn't matter.' His wife says. 'I sometimes wish he was more responsible with money, but I'm still pleased for him. I've always helped him in his career, as he'd helped me, by sharing everything. We weren't unhappy with our jobs, so we didn't really need the money to escape, and although Colin considered retiring, I know he wouldn't be happy doing that – he loves music too much. I think he did the right thing.'
