BIKE SAFETY

安全骑车

【美国】梅瑟·迈克尔 著/绘

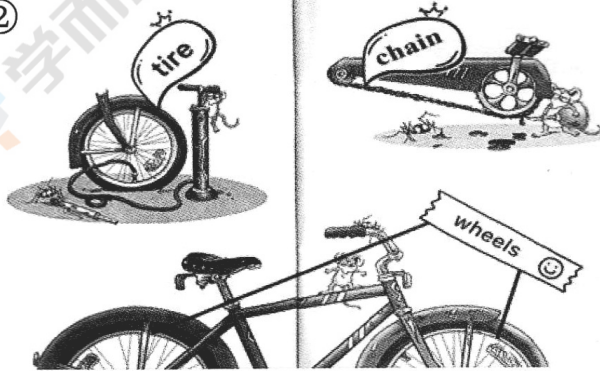

外语教学与研究出版社
FOREIGN LANGUAGE TEACHING AND RESEARCH PRESS

①

Today is bike safety day at school. Mr. Green comes to talk to us.

②

Mr. Green teaches us how to check (检查) our bikes. First, the tires should have enough air (够气). Then, put shiny reflectors (反光板) on the front and back wheels. Last, check the chain. It should be clean and oiled (有润滑油的).

③

Then, we each get a cool, new helmet. Mr. Green says, "You should always wear helmets when you ride bikes."

④

Next, Mr. Green tells us to wear colourful clothes. If we wear colourful clothes, drivers in cars and other (其他的) bikers can see us easily (容易地).

⑤

Mr. Green shows us how to make hand signals (手势信号). To turn left, you put your arm out straight. To turn right, you put your arm up. And to stop (停车), you put your hand down.

Mr. Green tells us more traffic rules (规则). We should watch out for the traffic lights and stop signs. And we should ride carefully around wet leaves, puddles, rocks and cracks in the road.

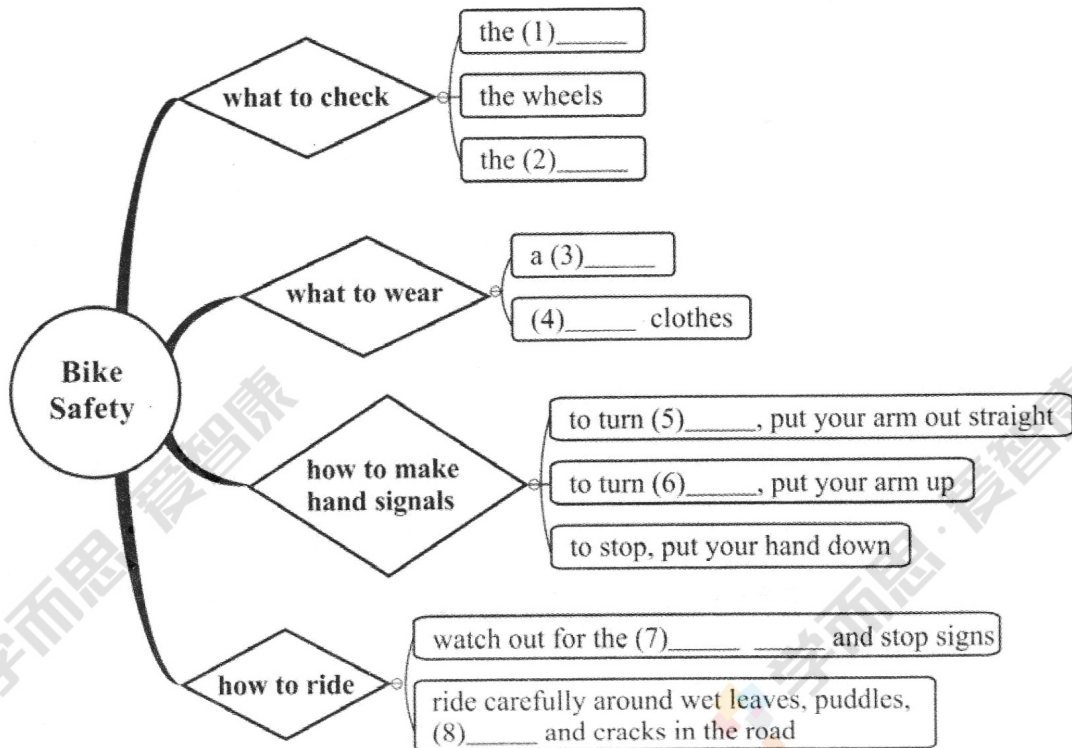

When I arrive home, there is a big surprise. I get a new bike! I'm happy to learn about bike safety at school today. Now, I know what to do.
