书面表达

23. 【答案】 Dear Kate,

I right away realized that you needed help when I read your e-mail. Now I would like to share my opinions with you about your problem.

In most families only have one children, for example me, in my home, my parents only have one children. In fact, I really want to have a brother or sister, because if I have a brother or sister, I will not feel lonely. And if I have some problems, he or she can help me. We can play together and grow up together, when I saw other children play with his brother pr sister in my childhood, I'm admired him very much. Until now, I also want to have a brother, if I have something can't tell others, I can tell him, and he will protect me. And when you grown up and get married, those couples will have more pressure because they need to take care of four old people, and they also need to raise their children. So, it is better to have a brother or sister to share the pressure and to take care of the parents. Don't be upset, you will like your brother and live happily with him.

Yours sincerely,

Lesley
