Henry is going through a very hard time. His wife just passed away. He feels that life without her is pointless. For months, Henry sits in his house, doing nothing.

Henry's neighbor, an old woman named Lisa, sees him from her yard one day. She has not seen him outside in days! She asks him to come closer to the fence (篱笆) next to her house.

"Hello, Henry! Just look at this fence. It is falling apart. You are a strong man. Can you help me fix this fence?" Lisa asks.

Henry is angry inside. He is the one who needs help right now. He thinks the lady is being kind of rude. But she is too old to fix the fence herself, so he agrees.

Henry works on the fences for days. When he finishes, she thanks him. Henry smiles for the first time in months.

"What a wonderful job! Could you please paint it for me?" Lisa says to him.

Henry cannot believe she is asking for more help. But because he respects her, he agrees. He works hard in the hot sun. As their neighbors pass by, they all tell Henry what a beautiful job he has done. Henry feels very happy.

Maria Mutola

Former 800 metres Olympic champion

In 1988, Maria Mutola was playing football as the only girl in an all-boys team in a local competition in Mozambique. "We won," she said. "At first no one thought it was a problem that I was a girl. But then the team we beat complained(抱怨)."

The story appeared in a local newspaper and Jose Craveirinha, who had encouraged(鼓励) other African athletes, learnt about Maria. He went to meet her and found her kicking a ball around outside the football club. He found that she was quite fast. "He talked to me about athletics(田径). I had no idea what he meant. The only sport I knew was football. Then he bought me running shoes and took me training. It was such hard work and my legs really ached." But Jose visited her parents and persuaded them she could be successful and this would help end their poverty(贫困). They agreed to let him take her away to train.

In 1991, she finally accepted an invitation to train in the United States. She had refused at first because she knew she would miss her family. Her background was unlike those of the girls she met in the US. She explains, "they were good athletes but, while I worried about my parents having enough to eat, they worried about dresses and make-up. They knew very little about me and even less about my problems. But I knew I was lucky to be there. The trainers were brilliant(聪颖的) and I learnt a lot."

Today, Maria still runs and for most of the year she lives happily in South Africa with her mother.
