Are you the only child in your family? How do you feel if you have a little brother or sister?

Having a new baby in your family is really great. If everyone in the family helps to take care of the baby, then it will be very happy to be part of such a family.

If you are old enough, you may be able to help your mum or dad look after the baby. You can hold the baby, help to bath (给.....洗澡) it, or walk it around the house or garden. But you should always ask mum or dad before you do anything for the baby. Your mum is likely to be very tired if the new baby wake a lot during the night. You might be able to help your mum by doing something nice for her.

You may feel a bit jealous of the baby at times. Don't think that you are a bad kid if you get those feelings. It is very normal for any kids to have such feelings.

(1) Having a new baby in a family is really ____ .

Two brothers are good friends and they always play together. But one day, they are angry with each other because of one of their toys. And then they decide they can only play with their own toys.

They have too many toys. When they decide who has the big toys, it's time for bed. They leave the small toys for the second day. The same thing happens the third day, and day after it is the same story.

Every morning they meet up and argue about which toys are theirs. As the years pass, each brother has a mountain of toys. They have to keep their own things outside their house. They are getting older, but no one sees them smile.

One morning they go out and find their two mountains of toys together again. Then they see two little boys passing the toys to each other and playing with them happily.

Seeing that, the two elder brothers know how stupid they have been for so many years. They don't play with anything, but use their whole lives to be angry with each other. Soon they start playing together with those toys. Now people call them the "Big Kids".

(1) From the passage, we know the two elder brothers have a lot of ____ .

- A. money B. toys C. houses D. mountains

Cindy likes parks very much. She likes the trees and grass. She likes the birds in parks. She also likes walking or riding bikes there.

There is a lake park not far from her house. Cindy loves to walk along the small road, stop along the way and look in the water for fish.

Fall is the best time to visit the lake park. The leaves change color and they are very beautiful. The sun will be out in the cloudy sky, and then wind will blow through the trees.

Spring is nice, too, because all the butterflies are out. The flowers and trees are beautiful. The lake grass is tall and green, dancing in the wind. It is a good time to visit.

Summer is okay. It is still pretty, but too hot. In winter, things are pretty in a cold way. The white snow covers everything. It gives the park a clean look. It is fun to follow other people's footprints in the snow.

If Cindy had time, she would visit the park every day. It is also a great place to do homework or read.

(1) Why does Cindy like parks?

- A. Because many parks are around her house.
- B. Because she can play with her friends there.
- C. Because there is so much to see and do in the park.
- D. Because she can stay away from her homework there.

(2) Which season is the best time to visit the lake park?

- A. Spring.
- B. Summer.
- C. Fall.
- D. Winter.

(3) What do the third, fourth and fifth paragraphs mainly tell us?

- A. The four seasons in the lake park.
- B. The snow in the lake park.
- C. The flowers and trees in the lake park.
- D. The best time to visit the lake park.

(4) What can we know from the passage?

- A. There isn't a lake park close to Cindy's house.
- B. It is boring to follow other people's footprints in the snow.
- C. The leaves in the park stay green all year around.
- D. Cindy wants to go to the park every day.

(5) What is the best title for the passage?

- A. The Four Different Seasons.
- B. Cindy Likes Parks
- C. Keep Happy in the Park
- D. The Best Time to Visit Parks
