10 Dear Peter,

I have read your letter and learnt about your problems. Teenagers often argue with their parents as they are growing up.

One of the biggest things is when someone becomes a parent, he/she likes worrying a lot, such as your haircut and wearing style. Besides, you are not allowed to use telephone and computer. Especially, your study and friends. Almost every teenager have the same question. It's normal. All these things are part of your life. They want you to grow up healthily and happily.

So how can you make things easier on yourself? First, just make sure your parents know what you're doing and explain the reason why you do it when necessary. Second, get them to know your friend. Do not hang out late as soon as possible. Third, take responsibility for mistakes. Show them your ideas.

I hope you can find a way to get along better with your parents.

Yours,
Aunt Wang
