四、判断型阅读

(共5小题, 每小题2分, 共10分)

14 Chinese names are not the same as English names. In China, the last name (family name) is before (在.....之前) the first name (given name). If (如果) your name is Li Mingming. Li is your last name and Mingming is your first name.

In England, the names have three parts (部分): the first name, the middle name, and the last name. I have a friend Tom Danial Smith. His first name is Tom, middle name is Danial and last name is Smith. And Tom Danial is the given name.

The English like using (使用) Mr., Mrs., or Miss before the last name, not the first name. So you can call (称呼) Li Ming "Mr. Li" or Tom Daniel Smith "Mr. Smith".

1. All (所有的) the first names are before the last names.
2. In England, the given name is before the family name.
3. The last name is the given name in English.
4. Chinese don't often (经常) use middle name.
5. If your teacher's name is Wang Bo, and you can call him "Mr.Bo".
