优秀范文

A happy memory in my junior high school

The happy memories I have had in my junior high school are countless. The most impressive one is the celebration of my fourteenth birthday. Our school held a party in a hall for the students of our grade. On that day, I sang and danced with my classmates on the stage. Our performance was a big success, which made me happy and excited. After that, we had a big dinner together in the school canteen. The food was delicious and we liked it very much. I had a good time. It was really a happy and unforgettable memory for me.
