My changes

As I learn more and grow up gradually, I change in many aspects. My teachers say I study harder and my parents say I am more sensible than before.

As for me, I want to learn more in school and be a good girl to make my parents happy. Now, I am more focused on lessons and finish my homework actively.

I know that studying hard can give me a bright future. At home, I often help my mother to do housework. I like reading now. I realize books can be my friend, too. It is really interesting.

My summer holiday

We finished our school life on July 13rd, last year. I started my summer holiday at that time. At first, I went to visit my grandma.

I bought many fruits and other foods for her. She was very happy. And then, I went to the zoo with my friend. There were not only many monkeys but also other animals. At last, I learned to swim in the children's palace. I was very fun in my summer holiday.
