32 China is calling

China is located in the east of Asia. It looks like a rooster on the map. It's very powerful. The capital of China is Beijing. There are many famous scenic spots in Beijing, such as the Great Wall, the summer palace, the Forbidden City and so on. To say what we must eat in Beijing, the first must be roast duck, which has won the praise of countless foreign friends. In Beijing, we can also find buildings that are not available in other places, quadrangle dwellings, which are traditional Chinese buildings. Of course, the above mentioned is only a small part of China's beautiful scenery, welcome to explore.
