21 Girls and boys,

With the development of the Internet, many students have smart phones.

However, being addicted to smart phone can do much harm to us. Nowadays, a lot of students spend much time playing games on their smart phones. As a result, they stay up late and don't have time to do homework. They also sleep in class and can't hand in their homework on time. Besides, using smart phone too much is bad for our eyes. As students, we should keep ourselves away from smart phones and study hard. In our free time, we can spend more time communicating with our parents and friends. What's more, we should learn to arrange our time well and try our best to study.

That's all. Thank you!
