21 One of the premier medical scientists in the 21st century is Zhong Nanshan. He was born in October, 1936 in Nanjing. This year, COVID-19 broke out in China and spread around the world. Zhong Nanshan took an active part in the battle against COVID-19, working night and day. Through months of hard work, Zhong and his colleagues made remarkable results. Ordinarily, he loves sports and he is good at it. It is reported that he broke the national record of the men's 400m Hurdles in 1960. I regard him as a hero from the bottom of my heart.
