27 Dear Sir/Madam ,

My name is Li Hua. I would like to apply to work as a volunteer for the Winter Olympic Games.

I am a boy/girl of 17 and I am studying at a high school now. I am good at English and can communicate with foreign tourists in English fluently. I believe I can do a good job in the Games. First, I like sports and I am familiar with our city. Second, I get along well with others, which is especially important for a volunteer. Third, I'm ready to give help whenever it is needed. I promise to offer the best service possible to the people at the Games.

Please take my request into consideration. Looking forward to your early reply.

Yours ,
Li Hua

28 Parents tend to go to extremes when it comes to praising their kids. Yet, both too much and too little praise can be equally damaging. When giving praise, parents should be sincere and concentrate on the process instead of the result. Similarly, they ought to give praise for how much effort their kids have invested in the work they're involved in.
